MARK REEDER, CONSULTING ECONOMIST, MARKET ISSUES

Mark is an economics consultant, with a focus on the electric and gas industries. He has 34 years of experience as an economist at the New York Public Service Commission, including the last ten years (2005-2014) as the Director of the Office of Regulatory Economics and chief economic advisor to the Commission. Mark has substantial expertise in marginal cost estimation, retail rate design, cost/benefit analysis, and the design of wholesale electric markets, especially the New York Independent System Operator (NYISO). Currently he is representing the Alliance For Clean Energy New York (ACE NY) at NYISO Stakeholder meetings with a focus on the interconnection process, carbon pricing, and hybrid resources.

###

About the Alliance for Clean Energy New York: The Alliance for Clean Energy New York (ACE NY) is a broad coalition dedicated to promoting clean energy, energy efficiency, a healthy environment, and a strong economy for the Empire State, and is New York's premier advocate for the rapid adoption of renewable energy and energy efficiency technologies.
