REID WAGNER, CLEAN ENERGY MARKETS ANALYST

Reid Wagner is the Clean Energy Markets Analyst for ACE NY. He focuses on researching, tracking, and representing ACE NY and its members to NYISO and government organizations on interconnection processes, interconnection standards, energy markets, and transmission planning/investments which affect the development of large-scale renewable energy projects. He joined the ACE NY team in July of 2023. He has a strong passion for clean energy and a desire to ensure that New York continues its leadership in meeting its climate goals.

Prior to joining ACE NY, Reid worked in the finance and banking industry for 8 years. In his previous role, he served a wide range of clients as a Wealth Management Advisor at Merrill a Bank of America company. He also served as an Army Officer in the New York State National Guard and spent four years on active duty in the United States Air Force as an Operations Manager in a Civil Engineering unit.

Reid is currently pursuing a master's degree in Renewable Energy & Sustainability Systems through Pennsylvania State University. He earned a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree from Pennsylvania State University in 2020.
